REMARKS.

411647 —

The Wolcottville Seminary, founded solely by individual enterprise and donated to the Principal of the School,—has now been in operation nearly four years.

The building is nearly finished, and is capable of accommodating at least one hundred Students. It is furnished with Globes, Maps, Specimens, &c., together with Musical Instruments.

Text books which are used in the School can be purchased by Students at the Seminary.

There is a Literary Society connected with the School, which bids fair to become flourishing. The Society has a well selected Library, to which the members have weekly access.

The School was originally designed for Ladies only. Gentlemen have been and will be admitted during recitation hours.

There is in connection with the School, a Sabbath School, in which an effort is made to teach Bible truths, regardless of sectarian principles.

In addition to the Seminary, a Boarding House is now completed, and ready for the reception of Young Ladies. It is finished in small rooms, designed for two pupils each, in which they will sleep, study mornings and evenings, (there being an opportunity to study in the Seminary during recitation hours,) and the Ladies will be required to keep their rooms in order.

There is also a Music room, and parlor for their accommodations. As these facilities are provided at great expense expressly for young ladies attending the School, it is expected that all who come from a distance to procure board and enter the School, will call at the Boarding House, unless they have relations in the Village.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

At the second ringing of the bell, in the morning, the students will assemble in the school room to engage in the opening exercises of the school; after which information will be given when and where each class will recite; those who study in their rooms can retire, those who study in the school room remain, and no loud study or whispering will be allowed during study hours. Punctuality, quiet-study, promptness in reciting and respectful deportment are required of every pupil.

Collecting in any of the halls for boisterous talking and laughing, or any unnecessary noise, in or out of study hours, will be considered a misdemeanor.

The young ladies will not be permitted to go out evenings, attend pleasure rides, parties, &c., without the consent of parents, guardian or teacher.

Neatness and order are required of all. The marking of books, desks, walls &c., will be forbidden, and students held responsible for the injury they do to Seminary or Boarding house or things belonging thereto, and they shall report and pay for the same.

Some written exercise or declamation is required of each pupil every week. Students are expected to attend the Sabbath School regularly. Walking the streets for pleasure, visiting or receiving visitors on the Sabbath are totally forbidden.

Young Ladies at the Boarding House will have regular hours for exercise, study, retiring and rising; and quietness in each room will be required.

All Students away from the Boarding House, are expected to conform to the same regulations, unless circumstances render it unavoidable.

Gentlemen wishing to enter the School, must confer with the Trustee, and hold themselves responsible to the same, in connection with the Principal, for misdemeanor, or breaking the rules of the School. Scuffling, ball playing, snow balling, and noisy play of any kind, and chewing tobacco in or about the Seminary, are strictly forbidden.

The Gentlemen will not be permitted to enter the yard, or Seminary until the ringing of the second bell in the morning, and the one o'clock bell afternoon.
